2003 Honda Pilot - driver's door lock stuck. The driver's door lock on my 2003 Honda Pilot does not work. It will not work with the remote, the key in the door, the button from the inside, or manually pulling up the lock on the door itself. All the other doors locks work fine. What can I do to try and fix this problem myself or is it best left up to an expert to diagnose it and replace a part?
