Bloodhoof Arc Publications Books

Bloodhoof is the re-casting into compulsively spare modern verse of an ancient Eddic poem - but this only begins to hint at its attractions. It is a minimalist epic telling of the abduction of Gerdur Gymisdottir from the land of giants to the court of Freyr of the 'wolf-grey eyes', and the subsequent events culminating in the birth of her son and her hopes of being saved by her own kin.

October 25, 2010, marked the 35th anniversary of the first Women's Day Off in Iceland, when women took to the streets to protest the gender wage gap and fight for women's rights. This was still the focus of the 2010 demonstration but also to raise awareness of and end violence against women. Along with 50,000 other women, [...]
