D3t Movie Jcvd

J.C.V.D. is a film that knows what it is and what it is trying to say. Yet it somehow goes beyond that to become something more. It breaks down and then raises up one of the most famous action stars of all time only to show him in one of his best roles.

JCVD (2008) - IMDb

JCVD is an action film where the flamboyant heroics occur only in fantasy. Van Damme's most daring stunt is a monologue dropped into the middle of the movie, a self-pitying apologia... October 6,...

JCVD (Van Damage) (2008) - Rotten Tomatoes

Van Damme then persuades one of the bank robbers to release the hostages. After this happens, a scuffle ensues and in the resulting conflict, the brains behind the heist is shot. The police, after hearing a gunshot, storm the building. The police shoot another one of the thieves, and Van Damme is held at gunpoint by the final one.

JCVD (2008) - Plot Summary - IMDb

JCVD is a 2008 Belgian crime drama film directed by French Tunisian film director Mabrouk el Mechri, and starring Jean-Claude van Damme as a semi-fictionalized version of himself, a down and out action star whose family and career are crumbling around him as he is caught in the middle of a post office heist in his hometown of Brussels, Belgium.

JCVD (film) - Wikipedia

These elements add a lot of difficulty to an action movie (and that's not just a jab at Van Damme). To think that the movie was shot in this style, with such a personal and intricate plot, really goes to show the heart that went into this film. An all-time classic, JCVD should be a staple of fight films and arthouse together.
