First you will need to connect the V-TWIN to a live guitar rig or a recording console to audition the two channels. At this time, we would like to remind you that for any rack guitar system to sound amazing, it must not only have a great pre-amplifier such as the one you have just purchased...it must be combined with a musically warm and expressive power amplifier that is tuned to the needs of ...

Description. The Jeff Mod: This is the exact setup that he uses on his live board. We only have a limited amount of parts available for this mod. As we are able to obtain these parts we will offer this mod, so get them while they last. The Archer is sort of a 2 in one pedal. It can be used as just a clean boost by turning the gain all the way down.
