Why God Became A Man

It is derived from the Latin in and caro (flesh), meaning clothed in flesh, the act of assuming flesh. Its only use in theology is in reference to that gracious, voluntary act of the Son of God in which He assumed a human body. In Christian doctrine the Incarnation, briefly stated, is that the Lord Jesus Christ, the eternal Son of God, became a man.

Why God Became Man | Bible.org

As a result of man's rejection of God's love, he lost his original innocence, came under the power of sin and the devil, and was subject to death. Having lost God's grace, which was a pure gift to begin with and thus something to which he had no just claim, man became an outcast, unable to achieve the noble destiny to which God had ordained him.

God became man to defeat your greatest enemy Ever since the fall of Adam, men, women and children have been enslaved by death. It all began when Adam rejected God's command and ate the fruit in the Garden; since then, every person has come into this world under the same deadly curse. "The wages of sin is death," the Bible says.

3 Reasons God Had to Become Man — New Life Presbyterian Church

God's original intent was for man to rule over the earth, but that was hindered by the fall (2:5-8). By His incarnation and death for our sins, Jesus recovered what we lost in the fall (2:9-10). As the Captain of our salvation, Jesus became man in order to bring us to God (2:11-15).

God Became One of Us. Part of what it means to be a Christian is to believe the unbelievable: that the historical human person, Jesus, who was born in a stable in a backwater village outside of Jerusalem some two thousand years ago, was actually God in the flesh. This inconceivable proposition, the incarnation, 1 means that, beginning at his birth, the human baby named Jesus was "fully God and fully man in one person, and will be so forever." 2 God became man—forever.

God Became One of Us - Topical Studies

By the incarnation we do not mean that God was turned into a human or that Jesus ceased to be God while he was a man. The incarnation means that while remaining God, Jesus took upon a new nature - a human nature. The incarnation was the uniting the divine and the human into one being, one person. Jesus Christ was fully God and fully human.

Why Did Jesus, as God, Become a Human Being?

God became a man because man sinned against God. When Adam and Eve disobeyed God in the Garden of Eden, humanity became corrupted and condemned. That is why Adam and Eve's son, Cain, murdered his brother, Abel. That is why children learn to lie on their own.
